WONDERFUL CAVE. - A special from Glas gow Junction, Ky., says another wonderful cave has recently been discovered near this town .-It has already been explored for a distance of twenty-three miles. In another direction, called the short route, the avenues are very wide, and a span of horses can easily be driven through for a distance of eleven miles.

Three rivers, wide and very deep, are encountered on the long route. One of them is navigable for fourteen miles, until the passage becomes too narrow to admit a boat. This forms the third or river route which has to be explored in a boat. The cave is wonderful be-youd description, and far surpasses in grandeur the Mammoth or any cave before discovered. Several mummified remains have been discov ered in one of the large rooms. They were reposing in stone coffins, rudely constructed, and from appearances may have been in this cave for centuries. They present every appearance of the Egyptian mummy. Great excitoment prevails over this very important dis

Gossips of both genders, give up the shameful trade of tale bearing; don't be the devil's bellows any longer to blow up the fire of strife. Leave off setting people by the ears. Il you do not cut a bit off your tongues, at least season them with the salt of grace. Praise God more and blame neighbors less. Any goose can cackle, any fly can find out a sore place, any empty barrel can give forth sound, any brier can tear a man's flesh. No flies will go down your throat if you keep your mouth shut, and no evil speaking will come up. Thick much, but say little; be quick at work and slow at talk; and above all ask the great Lord to set a watch over your lips. - Spurgeon.
